10,000,000 Men Register--Three Arrests--100,000 Enforce Law. Rioting in Prison at Joliet--Head of German Wireless Came to U. S.

THOMAS HEARING CLOSED AT CITY HALL TODAY

The hearing on the removal of Robert J. Thomas as superintendent of water works department was brought to a close this morning, but the council did not render any decision. City Clerk Flynn and Maximé Lepine, who was elected to succeed Edward H. Foye as purchasing agent, were called to the witness stand. Mr. Flynn to produce records of the municipal council meetings since the first of the year and Mr. Lepine to produce requisitions for the purchase of materials for the water department, which it was alleged by counsel for Mr. Foye as purchasing agent, were called to page three.

THREE ARRESTS HEAD OF GERMAN IN DRAFT PLOTS WIRELESS IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—At noon today the registration was proceeding all over the country without reports of disturbance or untoward incidents of any kind.

No resistance had been reported in the hill countries of the south where organized resistance had been threatened not in the large cities where organized propaganda had been active.

There was nothing at that hour, however, to show what the registration was being awarded to any extent, but officials were confident the returns would show evasion negligible.

Arrest at Providence

The first word of trouble at the registration booths reached the department of justice at 12:30 o'clock in a despatch announcing the arrest of a man at Providence, R. I., on a charge of interfering with registration. The report gave no details and department officials said they inferred the man was probably endeavoring to persuade others not to register.

Held in $10,000

BOSTON, June 5.—Frank Motham, of Norwood, a mill operative, arrested yesterday on a charge of urging young men not to register as required by the president's proclamation, was held in a $10,000 bail for the grand jury after a preliminary hearing before a federal commissioner here today. He pleaded not guilty.

Arrest in New York

NEW YORK, June 5.—The first registration day arrest on a charge of opposing conscription to be reported in the metropolitan district occurred in Hoboken, where Otto Schroeder, born in Germany, was taken into custody for distributing hand bills attacking the draft law. He was held for treason.

OUCHED CITY OFFICIALS WANT BACK PAY

A regular meeting of the municipal council was held this forenoon at 10 o'clock with all members present. Routine business was transacted and a little discussion took place over the approval of a bill from the National Engineering Co. for work to the wing walls near the Pawtucket bridge. At the opening of the meeting Com-

OLD GLORY

A famous New England skipper, Captain Stephen Driver of Salem, first nicknamed "the American flag," "Old Glory." Just as Captain Driver was setting sail from Salem in the brig Charles Doggett in 1831, he was presented with a large American flag. As the flag was raised aloft, Captain Driver doffed his cap and christened it "Old Glory," a name evermore used for it.

Today this great nation is at war. Old Glory should fly from every household. We are all proud of our flag, the flag that stands for one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. We carry a complete line of flags. They are sold on the third floor.

America Stepping Forward to Do Her Part in Making World Safe for Democracy—Ten Million Inscribe Names on Honor Roll

America is stepping forward today sick or well, alien or native born—sick or well, alien or native born—to do her part in making the world safe for democracy.

In every city and town, in the most remote valley hamlet and at the wild mountain cross roads ten million sons of liberty are inscribing their names on the honor roll of the ages that the free governments for which their fathers died may not perish from the earth.

SEC. LANE TELLS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING GERMANY

WASHINGTON, June 5.—One of the tenents answered the question, "Why are we fighting Germany?" America is at war, Mr. Lane said, in self defense and because she could not keep out; she is at war to save herself with the rest of the world from the nation that has linked itself with its young men, and in ringing sen-

RIOTING IN STATE PRISON CONVICTS SET FIRES

CHICAGO, June 5.—Rioting in the state prison at Joliet, forty miles from Chicago, was reported to day. A. L. Bowen, temporary warden, telegraphed to Gov. Lowden asking for the militia. Three fires were set in the prison, it was reported.

Mr. Bowen yesterday issued orders that no visitors except relatives would be received at the prison. This is said to have incensed the prisoners.

They began the trouble by throwing dishes about, and even at their guards, at breakfast today. They then formed into groups and are said to have marched about the prison.

The first work of the soldiers was to clear the convicts away from the blazing buildings so that the firemen could work. This was quickly accomplished. At 11:14, three hours after the trouble started, the convicts had not been subdued, but the soldiers were making progress in heading them toward the cell rooms. The infantrymen were instructed not to shoot unless to save their own lives.

Troops Rushed to Scene

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 5.—Federalized troops have been placed at the disposal of authorities at Joliet in quieting riots among prisoners there. Adjt. Gen. Dickson announced today, after communication by telephone with Gen. Thomas Barry at Chicago.

Convicts will be glad to read that the municipal council voted to provide them with a lunch.

In precinct 1 of ward 6 a young man was asked the question if he was married or single and his reply was: "I'm single, but I'm going to be married tomorrow."

In precinct 2 of ward 6 we found our old friend, Thomas Bouche, at the table, busy with the cards—registration cards, of course—and Tom called our attention to the fact that this is his 45th year as precinct officer.

Francis N. Qua of the board of registrars was at the police court building this morning and enrolled four young men who were confined at the station. This saved the trouble of having the men accompanied to the precinct booths for registration.

SHORE AND COVELESKI IN PITCHERS' BATTLE

BOSTON, June 5.—Boston defeated Cleveland, 2 to 1, in a pitchers' battle yesterday. Coveleski, Cleveland's star pitcher, was hit for three singles in the sixth inning, which netted two runs. Cleveland scored in the first inning on Shore's error, Graney's steal and Speaker's single. Gardner was the hitting star, making three singles in as many times at bat. Speaker was the feature player, however, connecting with two hits and making two sensational catches of Lewis and Hoag. The Boston infield rallied around Shore when danger threatened. The score:

As a man of long training in the navy, King George of England takes the heir to his father, the Prince of Clarence, made the present King of Clarence, his recent visit to an American destroyer, as shown in the accompanying pictures, deserves notice and comment. No doubt the king shares in the favorable opinion of American ships voiced by British naval commanders.

SOLDIERS BUYING LIBERTY BONDS

In the New York state fair grounds in Rochester, where several regiments are in training, these men of the Thirtieth infantry, Colonel Buffington's command, lined up to sign the Liberty Loan bonds. They expect to be in France soon, but they feel the Liberty bond service at home is as important as fighting at the front. If congress gives us the increase it has been talking about, they said, we can apply that to payment for the bonds, and one man added, and if we don't come back our folks can use the pensions to make up what we default through death. This spirit of willingness to do double service in the cause of democracy is what will win the war.

Ten Billions to Be Spent in Year—Predicts Great Prosperity

NEW YORK, June 5.—Ten billion dollars to be spent during the coming year by the United States and the allied governments for the products of American farms, mines and factories, Secretary McAdoo declared here last night, will bring to the country the greatest prosperity in its history.

"Some people profess apprehension about the future of business," said Mr. McAdoo. "Why, gentlemen, prosperity in the next 12 months will be greater than it ever has been in our history. You cannot prevent it if you try. The only thing that could stop prosperity would be the refusal of the people to support the reasonable measures of taxation that are needed, and to buy the bonds of the government."

In Behalf of Liberty Loan

The secretary addressed a great mass meeting at Carnegie hall in behalf of the Liberty Loan when, he warned, would succeed as it must succeed only if every one did his duty. He appealed to those who cannot fight on the battlefield to supply the means that will enable the government to provide for the soldiers who go to the front.

"We have offered this great Liberty Loan," he said. "What does it mean? It means that your government offers you a privilege. It asks you men and women not to give something to your government, but to buy the best investment on earth, the safest thing you can possibly possess, something that is as safe as currency and yet better than currency because currency does not bear interest at 3½ per cent. It asks you to buy within your means but asks that the government may be supplied with the money to properly equip our brave men who have to go upon the field of battle to protect your wives, your liberty and your property. Millions of young Americans, with the fire of patriotism in their hearts, are going to respond to their country's call on June 4th. When they have been called, our duty is to see that they have everything that is necessary to make the most effective soldiers on earth.

Grumbling About Taxation

"I hear some grumbling about taxation. Is it possible that in this rich country, when our sons are going to the front to give their lives for us, there should be any quibbling about the necessary taxation to take care of them upon the field of battle? While we must not be unfair to property, while we must be scrupulously just in the imposition of taxation and in the treatment of all the economic questions which gain added importance during war time, property must bear its just share of the burden.

"If this war continues for another 12 months, it is probable that the total amount of financing that the government will have to do to cover its own expenditures and to extend the necessary credits to the government will amount to $10,000,000,000. It is proposed that only 18 per cent of this

On behalf of the government and the American Red Cross, Commander T. W. Richards, acting director of the national military relief and medical inspector of the United States navy formerly received from Dr. John A.

Harris of 140 Riverside drive, New York, the steam yacht Surf, to be used as an ambulance ship in the war.

A distinguished gathering, including Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, whose husband once had the ship under charter, attended the ceremony, which began with the raising of the United States and Red Cross flags above the ship, moored at the foot of West Se-nenth street, to the accompaniment of "The Star Spangled Banner."

There followed in rapid succession "God Save the King" and "The Mar- seillaise." Dr. E. M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas' church, delivered the prayer. Dr. Harris had received a certificate signed by President Wilson and by ex-President Taft, head of the Red Cross, attesting to the gift.

colossal sum, namely, $1,500,000,000, shall be raised by new taxation. When one considers the magnitude of this task and the probable economic effects of the sale of $3,200,000,000 of bonds within 12 months and the expenditure of the proceeds in the purchase of supplies in this country, it does not seem prudent or wise to provide by new taxation a less amount than $1,500,000,000.

Worst Mistake of Civil War

"There is always a serious danger of hurried inflation in war time when such great bond issues must be made. A reasonable amount of wholesome taxation, properly distributed, is the best corrective. The worst mistake made by the federal government at the outbreak of the Civil war was its failure to impose taxation vigorously and simultaneously. This led to a train of evils, hurtful to the credit of the government, and resulted in unnecessary sacrifices of human life and treasure.

To me it is a sad spectacle to see committees of various kinds coming to Washington and urging congress that the particular interest they represent be relieved of taxation, when, at the same time, our gallant boys are walking uncomplainingly to the recruiting offices throughout the land, signing their willingness to die if need be, in the cause of their country.

You men and women who create public opinion in this country must make yourselves heard and tell your representatives in congress that you are unwilling to support any policy which is more considerate of the interests of property than it is of the lives of our brave and unselfish soldiers.

We shall not fail if everyone does his duty, but warn you that these great things do not achieve themselves. They can only be achieved through the combined energy, determination and spirit of the American people. It is not enough of an answer to the challenge thrown down to us that we subscribe grudgingly or barely two billion dollars of Liberty bonds. We must, in order to subscribe this loan, our answer to the military autocracies of the earth must be that the American people have hitherto sacrificed in the cause of liberty and of self-government throughout the world."

No Time to Discuss Differences

Mr. McAdoo said that whatever differences there may have been about the war before it happened and there were honest differences of opinion about the present, it is no time to discuss them or to think of them.

"Your representatives in the congress of the United States, the men you sent there to speak for you, after having been informed by your president of the issues involved in this supposed conflict in the world's history," he said, "voted unanimously, unanimously, that the rights and liberties of the American people had been put in jeopardy by the aggressions of a foreign power.

It makes no difference by what name a foreign power may be called. The fact that it has committed repeated aggressions upon American rights, that it has subjected this nation to indignities and wrongs which no self-respecting nation could afford to endure, that will have regulating, and that we are in it, means that every citizen, no matter what his birth or origin, owes fidelity to the flag.

"I know how to sympathize with the men of German origin in this situation. I was born in the south in October, 1860, and the part of the Civil war my father fought on the southern side; some of his people fought on the northern side. I know with what heart-burnings, with what anguish, they had to face the issue of a divided country. Believes God Called Us In:

"There are times in the history of every nation when the hand of an unseen power directs things, when individuals are absolutely impotent to control the course of great events. This is one of those supreme crises. I believe that God had called this nation into this struggle because He had a mighty purpose to serve.

"Where there is democracy and self-government, nations cannot be buried into war by the arbitrary will of an individual. We have lived under the United States, under Canada, which is practically a great republic, for more than one hundred years, and we have never had to patrol one foot of the three thousand miles of border with an armed soldier. Isn't that a striking example of what it means to have self-government among contiguous peoples? The overshadowing danger to civilization today is the German military autocracy. The kaiser, with a limitless and lustful ambition unparalleled in history, has set out upon a scheme of universal dominion. In order to do this, he has determined that neither the laws of humanity nor the rights of any nation shall stand in the way; that is the reason he has committed these insatiable aggressions upon the American nation.

"Why is it that we have not felt sooner the extent of this menace? It is because we have been lulled into a false sense of security by the three thousand miles of water between us and Europe. For a long time that was enough, but modern science and invention have narrowed the Atlantic to such an extent that it is little more today, so far as modern warfare is concerned, than a river.

What Would Happen If Germany Won:

"Do you know what would happen if Germany should be victorious, as she would be if she could bring France and England to their knees? She would take the entire British and French fleets, release her own great fleet which has been tied up in the Baltic during the war, and combining these with the most destructive submarine fleet on earth—because she has—it she would come here and put the iron heel of conqueror upon your shores. We should have to fall back to the interior, and there is no telling how long it would take to regain the energy, if we ever could. If we couldn't do it promptly, do you know what would happen to America? We should have to make the most humiliating terms that any great nation ever made to get peace. We should have to pay an indeniably that would represent probably the wealth of America, which is $25,000,000,000, and you would have taxation upon your shoulders to meet that indemnity for a century to come.

The first thing we must do is to raise the money to equip our armies and put them in the field and extend credit to the great nations of Europe which are co-operating with us.

We must give them credit to enable them to purchase here the necessary supplies and munitions of war, in order that they may make their soldiers most effective for battle. No more effective we can make them more effective than to fight and to fight harder the more quickly this war will come to an end, and the less chance there will be that we shall have to send a great army of our own youth to Europe, and God knows we want to avoid that if we honorably can."

AMERICAN RED CROSS NEEDS $100,000,000

The sum of $100,000,000 is needed for the use of the American Red Cross in the present war and it is the purpose to begin an active campaign in which highly organized local committees throughout the country will strive to collect the maximum amount at the order of President Wilson, who is the real head of the American Red Cross, the week of June 18 to 25 has been set aside as Red Cross week.

In response to this order from the president, a finance committee of the Middlesex County chapter of the American Red Cross met yesterday afternoon. The majority of this chapter is located in Lowell although the surrounding towns are within the limits of the district. It was voted to conduct a campaign through teams of ten men and ten teams with ten members each. Men who agree to serve on the teams will be asked to enlist for the week of duty and be prepared to give a large amount of time to the work.

Robert F. Marden has been chosen chairman of the local board of executive campaigners at the present time. The board is composed of John A. Hunnewell, George Stevens, Fred C. Church, James C. Reilly and Albert D. Miller. A large body of executive committee will be used for a few days and will be asked to give material assistance to the framework of what may prove to be Lowell's banner campaign.

ANSWERING THE CALL

The young men who today register for duty with Uncle Sam, constitute the flower of the nation. They are in the bloom of youth, the high noon of physical perfection. It is such men with everything they cherish to live for, that Uncle Sam intends shall fight the battle of democracy and vindicate the cause of American rights.

They will now await the bugle's call to action and go into training for the fray.

They will take part, if at all, in one of the worst wars that ever cursed the earth, but yet a war that will rid the world of Prussian Junkerism, and world autocracy. Democracy will rule thereafter and freedom will be granted to small nationalities to which it was before denied. If the ingenuous Yankees should devise a mode of beating the submarines, the war would thereby be brought to a speedy termination. If the United States trains a great army, we may never have cause to use it.

The defection of Russia at the present time has enabled Germany to draw over 1,000,000 men from the eastern front to the west in the hope of thus checking the spring drive by Britain and France.

It is her aim to hold the French and Belgian territory now in her possession in order that at the close of the war, she may have it with which to trade for her colonies, but the Allies will drive her out in spite of all her efforts. There is little hope of Russia coming back so that the other allied powers with the United States will probably have to finish the war without aid from Russia.

But whether the United States shall or shall not need an army of one or two millions, the fact that we have it will be a guarantee of peace thereafter and will probably hasten the end of the war. It is not expected that any large number of American troops will see service in France.

THE SPEED MANIA

Now that the warm weather is with us, the speed maniacs who drive autos may be expected to cause the usual number of accidents, especially on Sundays. They will drive with such recklessness, that they will make the highways actually dangerous for the owners of autos who respect the law and the rights of others and who have some regard for their own safety.

Last Sunday may be regarded as the opening of the pleasure season for autos and accordingly there were several persons killed and number injured. Next Sunday the record of fatal accidents will be greater. Some pedestrians were struck on Sunday while in the path of automobiles. The reports indicate that the drivers were not exercising due care, as otherwise, such accidents could not have happened.

To give the chauffeur his due, it may be said that he seldom kills any pedestrian who does not get in front of his machine. That is to say, he does not go out of his way to kill pedestrians. But the reckless driver or the one who drinks can count many victims from among his passengers or those of the machines with which he collides.

It is time some authority were found to put a stop to reckless driving on the public highways. Such driving is more frequent on Sundays than as the record of accidents will show. It is reasonable to assume that without any interference from police authorities during the present summer, the number of accidents in this state will be greater than that of last year, because the number of automobiles is greater. That means that before the first of September the reckless drivers will have killed about from 40 to 50 persons and maimed a great many others. The police authorities of the state are responsible for these fatalities so long as they allow reckless driving on highways.

CHASING A CAREER

A Boston girl went to New York with the idea that she was destined for a "career." She had shown talent in her high school days. Now she is in jail for stealing from a home where she had sought work as a domestic helper after failing to get a start in the line she wished to pursue.

There are a lot of girls and boys, too, who are so eager for "careers" that they are not learning how to live. They mistake a dream for an ideal.

A dream is something we wish for; an ideal is something we work for. A dream makes commonplace duties dreary and distasteful while an ideal makes them interesting and attractive because they are the solid foundation upon which one may stand in reaching up for the ideal. The dream leads to neglect; the ideal encourages performance.

Here is some sound commercial time advice to boys and girls who are determined to seek careers. Don't do it.

Rather, remember that today is the treat adventure and the great opportunity. Don't get your heads so far in the clouds that your feet stumble in the clouds that your feet stumble. You can never find your career; it must find you. If you have made a safe, solid road as you go, your destiny will travel surely over it and catch up with you from behind.

That neighborhood girl who sought

War of Self Defense

"Why are we fighting Germany? The brief answer is that ours is a way of self-defense. We did not wish to fight Germany. She made the attack upon us, not on our shores, but on our ships, our lives, our rights, our future. For two years and more we held to a neutrality that made us apologists for things which outraged man's common sense of fair play and humanity.

"At each new offense—the invasion of Belgium, the killing of civilian Belgians, the attacks on Scarborough and other defenseless towns, the laying of mines in neutral waters, the fencing off of the seas—and on through the months we said: 'This is an unscrupulous, unneutralized war, but our war. All rules have been thrown away; all nobility; man has come down to the primitive brute. And while we cannot justify we will not intervene. It is not our war.'

Could Not Keep Out

"Then why are we in? Because we could not keep out. The invasion of Belgium, which opened the war, led to the invasion of the United States by slow, steady, logical steps. Our sympathies evolved into a conviction of self-interest. Our love of fair play ripened into alarm at our own peril.

"We talked in the language and in the spirit of good faith and sincerity, as honest men should talk, until we discovered that our talk was construed as cowardice. And Mexico was called upon to cow us. We were told as men would talk who cared alone for peace and the advancement of their own material interests, until we discovered that we were thought to be a nation of mere moneymen, devoid of all character—until indeed we were told that we could not walk the highways of the world without permission of a Prussian soldier, that our ships might not sail without wearing

THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like; for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called frezona, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky other compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of frezona obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

THE RED CROSS

Chairman Henry P. Davison of the American Red Cross has the reputation of a hustler, a man of extraordinary force and courage and one whose effort in behalf of the Red Cross of the nation has inspired confidence and brought success. The Red Cross is now engaged in a money raising campaign and there is no organization more deserving. It is hoped the desired amount will be secured without delay. The money is needed before the fall.

STEAMSHIP MERGER

About a score of British steamship lines have concluded a merger with a capital of $2,000,000 and a fleet of 400 vessels. To facilitate better routing and the more convenient transfer of crews is the object of the merger. By this means also greater safety against submarine attacks will be secured. It is a narrowing up of trans-Atlantic freight business against the common port.

THE FUEL SUPPLY

The head of the national coal board appeals for every pound of fuel possible, but his appeal should be directed chiefly to the mine operators and the railroads which manage by collusion to hold up the coal supply whenever and wherever they see fit.

Somebody has proposed a sanity test for recruits. The recruit has proved his sanity. The test should be tried on the other fellow.

The Prince of Wales is having a perfectly awful time finding a non-Teutonic wife. It is plain he never visited Lowell.

There is no sign of the freight embargo being lifted. Certainly a strike of railroad employees will not help in that direction.

Villa is apparently not yet dead since he is reported to have captured a town on the Rio Grande.

Those who are not called upon to register need not imagine that no service is demanded of them.

Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of debratone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. SIX CENT FARE:
President Sullivan of the Bay State Street Railway company has been successful in his effort to have the six cent fare controversy reopened. The Public Service Commission will have to go over the whole matter again with a view to saving the railroad service to the public and preventing the loss to the savings banks of the state which are said to have $200,000,000 invested in the company's securities. This latter consideration is the chief club which President Sullivan used to secure a reopening of the case. It is not likely that the Public Service Commission having yielded to the incessant appeal for a six cent fare can give another adverse decision. The company is likely to get the additional cent and with the jitneys taking away a considerable portion of its business, it may soon be asking even a higher rate of fare as necessary to save the stockholders from financial ruin. There are many lines of business in the same predicament but they cannot fall back upon the state for rehabilitation.

War to Save America

"And so we came into this war for ourselves. It is a war to save America, to preserve self-respect, to justify our rights to live as we have lived, not as someone else wishes us to live. In the name of freedom we challenge with ships and men, money and an undaunted spirit, that word 'verboten' which Germany has written upon the sea and upon the land. For America is not the name of so much territory. It is a living spirit, born in travail, grown in the rough school of bitter experiences, a living spirit which has purpose and pride and conscience—knows why it wishes to live and to what end, knows how it comes to be respected of the world, and hopes to retain that respect by living on with the light of Lincoln's love of man as its old and new testament.

"It is more precious than that, this America should live, should live and should live well.

"Then why are we in? Because we could not keep out. The invasion of Belgium, which opened the war, led to the invasion of the United States by slow, steady, logical steps. Our sympathies evolved into a conviction of self-interest. Our love of fair play ripened into alarm at our own peril.

the world of Christ—a neglected but not a rejected Christ—has come again face to face with the world of Mahomet, who willed to win by force.

"With this background of history and in this sense, then, we fight Germany:

Cannot Forget Liege

"Because of Belgium—invaded, outraged, enslaved, impoverished Belgium. We cannot forget Liege, Louvain and Cardinal Mercier. Translated into terms of American history these names stand for Bunker Hill, Lexington and Patrick Henry.

"Because of France—invaded, desecrated France, a million of whose heroic sons have died to save the land of Lafayette. Glorious golden France, the preserver of the arts, the land of noble spirit. The first land to follow our lead into republican liberty;

"Because of England—from whom came the laws, traditions, standards of life and inherent love of liberty which we call Anglo-Saxon civilization. We defeated her once upon the land and once upon the sea. But Australia, New Zealand, Africa, and Canada are free because of what we did. And they are with us in the fight for the freedom of the seas.

"Because of Russia—new Russia. She must not be overwhelmed now. Not now, surely, when she is just born into freedom. Her peasants must have their chance; they must go to school to Washington, to Jefferson and to Lincoln, until they know the world of the sons and daughters of neutral nations.

"We saw ship after ship sent to the bottom—ships of mercy bound out of America for the Belgian starvingships carrying the wounded of all nations—ships carrying food and clothing to friendly, harmless, terrorized peoples—ships flying the Stars and Stripes—sent to the bottom hundreds of miles from shore, manned by American seamen, murdered against all law, without warning.

"We believed Germany's promise that she would respect the neutral flag and the rights of neutrals, and we held our anger and outrage in check. But now we see that she was holding us off with fair promises until she could build her huge fleet of submarines.

"When spring came she blew her promise into the air just as at the beginning she had torn up that scrap of paper.

"Then we saw clearly that there was but one law for Germany, her will alone.

"We are fighting Germany because she violated our confidence. Paid German spies filled our cities. Officials of her government, received as the guests of this nation, lived with us to baffle and terrorize, defying our law and the law of nations.

"We are fighting Germany because while we were yet her friend—the only great power that still held hands off—she sent the Zimmerman note, calling to her aid Mexico, our southern neighbor, and hoping to lure Japan, our western neighbor, into war against this nation of peace.

"The nation that would do these things proclaims the gospel that government has no conscience. This doctrine must die! For the nations of the world must keep faith. There can be no law for a world where the state has no conscience, no reverence for the things of the spirit, no respect for international law, no mercy for those who fall before its force. What an unorderly world! Anarchy! The anarchy of the rival wolf packs!

SILK REMNANT SALE BY A. G. POLLARD CO.

World of Pleasure Shows, Lakeview ave.

Large was the attendance this morning at the opening of the annual sale of printed silk remnants at the A. G. Pollard Co.'s store. This is an important bargain event offered by this company, for which about 2500 announcements are annually sent out, reaching from coast to coast. The term "clock" quite aptly applies to the appearance of the eager buyers, as witnessed by a representative of The Sun.

The entire output of these silks from the Cheney Silk mills is received yearly, this year's assortment including the latest and most fashionable designs and color combinations in Samara, taffetas, crepe, chintz and shower proof fabrics. Upon their arrival the various patterns were assorted and carefully matched into patterns and arranged in these bundles of the several amounts for waists, dresses, coat and suit linings, etc.

To the extent of this sale, for the local people those out of town but within traveling distance, and for those who must order by mail, the entire right aisle and corner of the Palmer street store is being used for the display and selling of this lot of merchandise.

CENSORSHIP CLAUSE IS FINALLY KILLED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Striking out the newspaper censorship clause rejected by the house, the conferees on the espionage bill yesterday reached final complete agreement. Their report, with a slight change in another section of the measure, will be presented to the house Wednesday.

Adoption by both Senate and house is expected with little debate.

Besides eliminating the censorship provision, the only change made by the conferees was to make the section punishing interference with foreign commerce operative in peace as well as war.

The conferees' action is accepted as ending the administration efforts for press censorship for the time being, but a new and separate censorship bill will be drafted after consultation with publishers may be presented later.

M'ADOO IN BOSTON TO BOOM LIBERTY LOAN

BOSTON, June 5.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo arrived here today to make an appeal to the people of New England to subscribe liberally to the Liberty Loan. The England Liberty Loan committee had arranged for the secretary to deliver an address in Faneuil hall at noon, to speak briefly at an overflow meeting in the market district just outside the hall, and to attend a luncheon at the City club.

In an interview Secretary McAdoo laid stress on the need of small subscriptions to the bond issue.

"Our people," he said, "must be made to realize that a loan of this size is too great for the banks to handle alone and that this great volume of money must be made up by the mass of the people. Moreover, wide popular subscription to this loan indicates greater national unity in this emergency and provides a more effective answer to the kaiser's challenge to civilization. Wide distribution of this investment means also less displacement of business."

"The first necessity is carrying on war is money. This is called the Liberty Loan because the money derived from it will be dedicated to the cause of liberty throughout the world. We are now engaged in a death struggle between progressive civilization and the foes of progressive civilization. Free and progressive America belongs in a fight of this kind."

"We are sending our soldiers to the field and expecting them to make the supreme sacrifice that a patriot can make. We must not be less hesitant to require the sacrifice of property needed to make our soldiers effective upon the field. The soundness of our prosperity can only be conserving the application of wholesome taxation, because we cannot afford to take the risks of the unrestrained inflation that will come from bond issues alone."

BOARD OF HEALTH

Agent Requests Appointment of an Additional Nurse in This Department

—Letter to Mayor

Mayor O'Donnell has received the following communication, which he has taken under advisement:

Hon. James E. O'Donnell, Mayor.

Dear Sir:—

We would call your attention to the fact that there is a constantly increasing number of tuberculosis cases and orthopneic cases which require more time and service than one nurse can possibly give.

We, therefore, respectfully ask that another nurse be appointed in this department to assist the present nurse in giving the care and treatment required by such cases.

Yours truly,
Board of Health.

INQUESTS ON DEATHS OF TWO MEN

Inquests into the deaths of Joseph Foley and James Kennedy will be held in the court of second sessions in the Market street building Thursday morning.

Foley had been an inmate of the state infirmary at Tewksbury since April 16, 1914, and on the 24th of May of this year, the man, having been failing rapidly, and was on the dangerous list, was prepared for a bath by an attendant. The water was turned hotter than the attendant realized and Foley as a result of being placed in the water received severe burns before being removed. According to the report it is thought that some person carelessly allowed the water to run for some time during the attendant's absence. According to the report of Assistant Medical Examiner Marshal L. Alling death was due to scalds of the body, arms and legs.

James Kennedy was lying on the road of the Lowell-Durant line on the morning of May 26th and was run over by an automobile operated by Lyndwood Foster. Kennedy was taken to St. John's hospital where it was found he was suffering from a fracture of the skull which resulted in his death on May 26th.

SEC. LANE TELLS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING GERMANY

WASHINGTON, June 5.—One the eve of war registration day, Secretary Lane made a speech before the Home club of the interior department last night in which he addressed a word to those who have not seen clearly the reason for the country's call upon its young men, and in ringing sentences answered the question, "Why are we fighting Germany?"

America is at war, Mr. Lane said, in self defense and because she could not keep out; she is at war to save herself with the rest of the world from the nation that has linked itself with

LIQUOR RATES IN WAR TAX BILL CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Liquor rates in the war tax bill were further considered today by the senate finance committee and it was decided to retain the house tax of 15 cents per gallon on rectified spirits, estimated to raise $7,500,000 in revenue.

Much approval was expressed in connection with the committee's approval yesterday of a prohibitory tax upon distillation of whiskey and other similar liquors for beverage purposes. Senate leaders said the tax, designed both as a food conservation and prohibitory measure, would have strong support in the senate.

"OLD GLORY"

A famous New England skipper, Captain Stephen Driver of Salem, first nicknamed the American flag "Old Glory." Just as Captain Driver was setting sail from Salem in the brig Charles Doggett in 1831 he was presented with a large American flag. As the flag was raised aloft, Captain Driver doffed his cap and christened it "Old Glory," a name evermore used for it.

Today this great nation is at war. Old Glory should fly from every household. We are all proud of our flag, the flag that stands for one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. We carry a complete line of flags. They are sold on the third floor.

America Stepping Forward to Do Her Part in Making World Safe for Democracy—Ten Million Inscribe Names on Honor Roll

America is stepping forward today to do her part in making the world safe for democracy.

In every city and town, in the most remote valley hamlet and at the wildest mountain cross roads ten million sons of liberty are inscribing their names on the honor roll of the ages, that the free governments for which their fathers died may not perish from the earth.

White or black, married or single, sick or well, alien or native born—every man between the ages of 21 and 31 are expected to present themselves today between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. for registration. It does not matter that a man for any reason is unfit for army duty; that will be established later. It does not matter that he may claim and be entitled to exemption from army service—that will be attended to in another way. It does not matter that he is not a citizen of the United States. Every man between those ages is required to register today unless he already is in the military service in some branch or other.

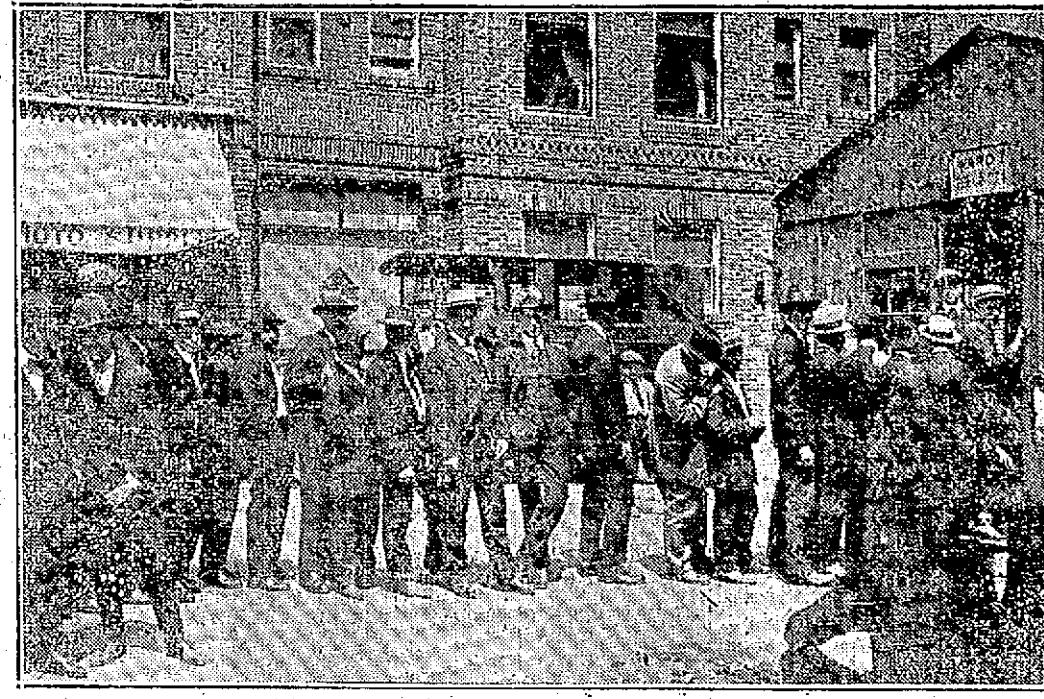

Registration Primer

The war department's registration primer readily shows this. It follows:

apparent at breakfast today. Dishes were hurled at the guards, tables overturned, and the convicts surged into the grounds, shouting and making threats. They seized what missiles and weapons they could, and obtained more from the implement house. They then set fire to the ruttan shop, the first blaze provoking abortion. Other fires followed.

Firemen from this city responded to the alarm but the convicts threw volleys of bricks at them. Chief Royce was knocked down, but was rescued by his men. The battle was proceeding briskly when the soldiers arrived, although outnumbered three to one, they began an orderly attack with bayonets and clubbed thrusts. In the course of the fighting Peter Waters, a guard, was injured and three convicts were wounded by bayonet thrusts.

There are about 1200 convicts and the situation soon got beyond the control of the guard. A. L. Bowen, temporary warden, telephoned to Gov. Lawrence for military assistance.

For some time there had been reports of lax discipline at the prison and conditions were the subject of a recent investigation by a legislative committee. Warden Zimmer resigned recently to accept another position in Chicago. His successor has not been appointed. Yesterday in the interests of discipline, Acting Warden Bowen ordered that hereafter no visitors except relatives would be admitted to the grounds.

The buildings fired were the ruttan and chair factory, which are of considerable size, the chapel, oil house and lumber shop.

At noon it was declared that the fires in three of the five buildings were under control.

The injured were taken to the prison hospital for treatment. Soldiers and guards were posted on the walls as soon as the hand to hand struggles

SHORE AND COVELESKI
IN PITCHERS' BATTLE

BOSTON, June 5.—Boston defeated Cleveland, 2 to 1, in a pitchers' battle yesterday. Coveleski, Cleveland's star pitcher, was hit for three singles in the sixth inning, which netted two runs. Cleveland scored in the first inning on Shore's error. Graney's steal and Speaker's single, Gardner was the hitting star, making three singles in as many times at bat. Speaker was the feature player, however, coming with two hits and making a sensational catch of a low and hard Honker. The Boston outfit rallied around Shore when danger threatened. SEVEN NATIONS IN CHAMP CIRCLE
Seven nationalities have held the lightweight championship, including Dempsey and McAllister were Irish, Lorraine a Frenchman, Gans a negro, Nelson a Dane, Wolgast a German, Ritchie an American, Welsh a Welshman and Leonard a Jew.

Very cosmopolitan, especially when it is considered that of the six heavyweight champions since Sullivan's time four were Irish, one a negro and one American.

LEONARD SAYS MOTHER
MADE HIM CHAMP

"My mother deserves all the credit. She always made me live right." That was the first statement of Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, in an interview after he had knocked out Freddie Welsh.

His first words after the fight were to his brother, telling him to "run and telephone to mother."

There is little of fineness and sentiment in the boxing game—for the most part it is world and morally depressing.

But these sentiments from a boxer show that even among the environments of boxing stables as conducted in New York the influence of a good mother will keep a boy right.

After winning his title Leonard went home to his mother, his home at 40 Middle St.

GREAT OFFENSIVE ON

that it is the only high land between the British and Lille. Once in possession of the British, their guns would command the broad plain between the plateau and Lille, a distance of about ten miles.

Opening of Austrian Parliament
The relative lull in the war theatres has had no counterpart in the field of politics where events are moving rapidly. The opening of the Austrian parliament has caused something akin to consternation in the German press, and the Pan-German organs especially are filled with gloomy predictions over the political situation in the dual monarchy. Their uneasiness is based largely on the fact that the German party is in a very marked minority in the Austrian chamber of deputies, while the fall of Count Tisza in Hungary has given renewed confidence to the Czech and other anti-German elements.

New Head of Russian Army
In Russia the situation remains obscured by all manner of conflicting and sensational reports. Two events, however, have given fresh heart to well-wishers of the infant republic, the first is the nearing arrival in Petrograd of the American commission, and the second is the appointment of General Brusiloff as commander in chief of Russia's army. Gen. Brusiloff enjoys the reputation of being not only a brilliant field commander but a strong and self-reliant man, and his appointment is taken as a fresh indication that Minister of War Kerensky's promise of a vigorous administration was not an idle boast.

Wytshacta marks the head of a short salient held by the Germans south of Ypres. This salient is, roughly, three miles deep and averages about the same extent in width. Its great importance lies in the fact that it is the only high land between the British and Lille. Once in possession of the British, their guns would command the broad plain between the plateau and Lille, a distance of about ten miles.

Tremendous Artillery Duel

The most interesting feature in the meagre official reports is the repeated announcement of a tremendous artillery duel in progress around the little Belgian village of Wytshacta, about five miles south of Ypres.

From this point as far south as the famous Vimy ridge, 30 miles away, the guns are roaring day and night, apparently indicating that Gen. Haig has chosen this wide sector for his next big blow. In this connection it is recalled that Gen. Maurice, director general of military operations predicted some weeks ago that the next British offensive would be on a vaster scale than any which preceded it.

Prussian Junkers

The Prussian junkers are still putting forward extravagant programs of annexations and indemnities. They have, apparently, abandoned the idea of a separate peace with Russia and are now discussing the dismemberment of that country. Their boasts have been made with the passage by the French chamber of deputies, by an overwhelming majority of a resolution declaring that peace can be based only on the return of Alsace-Lorraine to France and the evacuation and restoration of the regions invaded by Germany.

THOMAS HEARING
Continued

Thomas, were filed after the said materials had been purchased by the commissioner of the department. Messrs. Brown, Warnock and Morse objected to the admission of the records and requisitions and the testimony of each witness was very brief.

In the course of the hearing Mr. Brown clashed several times with Albert S. Howard, who was conducting Mr. Thomas' case. Every time Mr. Howard attempted to make a statement, he was interrupted by Mr. Brown. Arguments were brought to a close at 3:30 o'clock and the Foye hearing is scheduled to open at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

City Clerk Stephen Flynn was the first witness called this morning, the respondent and the water department were bearing upon the attempts to remove Mr. Thomas. Mr. Howard said he desired to place on record the records of the council since Jan. 1, this year, in an endeavor to show bad faith on the part of the council. Mr. Howard said he also desired to bring in all the records of the council since Jan. 1, to show that a triumvirate existed in the council.

Mr. Howard said the records will be absolutely of no use and he objected to allowing them. The mayor said he could see no objection to offering the records as evidence.

Mr. Brown said he would vote against the introduction of all the records.

Mr. Howard: The mayor has ruled.

M'ADOO APPEALS TO ALL TO BUY

Calls Liberty Bonds Best Investment on Earth
—At New York

Ten Billions to Be Spent in Year—Predicts Great Prosperity

NEW YORK, June 5.—Ten billion dollars to be spent during the coming year by the United States and the allied governments for the products of American farms, mines and factories, Secretary McAdoo declared here last night will bring to the country the greatest prosperity in its history.

"Some people protest apprehension about the future of business," said Mr. McAdoo. "Why, gentlemen, prosperity in the next 12 months will be greater than it ever has been in our history. You cannot prevent it if you try. The only thing that could stop prosperity would be the refusal of the people to support the reasonable measures of taxation that are needed, and to buy the bonds of the government."

In Behalf of Liberty Loan

The secretary addressed a great mass meeting at Carnegie hall in behalf of the Liberty Loan, which, he warned, would succeed as it must succeed only if every one did his duty. He appealed to those who cannot fight on the battlefield to supply the means that will enable the government to provide for the soldiers who go to the front.

"We have offered this great Liberty Loan," he said. "What does it mean? It means that your government offers you a privilege it takes from men and women and gives something to your government, but to buy the best investment on earth, the safest thing you can possibly possess, something that is as safe as currency and yet better than currency because currency does not bear interest at 5 1/2 per cent. It asks you to buy within your means in order that the government may be supplied with the means to equip our brave men who have to go up the field of battle to protect your lives, your liberty and your property. Millions of young Americans, with the fire of patriotism in their hearts, are going to respond to their country's call on June 5th. When they have been called, our duty is to see that they have everything that is necessary to make the most effective soldiers on earth."

Grumbling About Taxation

"I hear some grumbling about taxation. Is it possible that in this rich country, when our sons are going to front to give their lives for us, they should be any quibbling about the necessary taxation to take care of them upon the field of battle? While we must not be unfair to property, while we must be scrupulously just in the imposition of taxation and in the treatment of all the economic questions which gain added importance during war time, property must bear its just share of the burden."

"If this war continues for another 12 months, it is probable that the total amount of financing that the government will have to do to cover its own expenditures and to extend the necessary credits to the allied governments will amount to $1,000,000,000, or a proportion that only 18 per cent of this total sum, namely, $180,000,000, shall be raised by new taxation. When one considers the magnitude of this task and the probable economic effects of the sale of $8,200,000,000 of bonds within 12 months and the expenditure of the proceeds in the purchase of supplies in this country, it does not seem prudent or wise to provide by new taxation a less amount than $180,000,000."

Worst Mistake of Civil War

"There is always a serious danger of harmful inflation in war time when such great bond issues must be made. A reasonable amount of wholesome taxation, properly distributed, is the best corrective. The worst mistake made by the federal government at the outbreak of the Civil war was its failure to impose taxation vigorously and sufficiently. This led to a host of evils, hurtful to the credit of the government, and related unnecessary sacrifices of human life and treasure."

"To me it is a sad spectacle to see committees of various kinds coming to Washington and urging congress that the particular interest they represent be relieved of taxation, when, at the same time, our gallant boys are working uncomplainingly to the registration offices throughout the land, signifying their willingness to die if need be, in their country's cause. You men and women who create public opinion in this country must make yourselves heard, and tell your representatives in congress that you are unwilling to support any policy which is more considerate of the interests of property than it is of the lives of our brave and unselfish soldiers."

TROOPS READY FOR CALL TO FITCHBURG

FITCHBURG, June 5.—Fearing that another attempt might be made to hold a mass meeting to be addressed by speakers opposed to conscription, Mayor Frank H. Foss today requested acting Adj't. Gen. Sweetser to hold troops in readiness to be sent here in the event of disorder.

Only 500 persons assembled on the public square last night but a meeting was not permitted by the police after they had been advised of its nature. Mayor Foss said his request was merely a precautionary measure and that while he did not expect trouble he wanted to be prepared to meet it if it came.

There was no announcement today concerning further efforts to hold a meeting. The gathering last night was composed largely of foreigners, the majority of whom, it was explained, did not understand the meaning of registration.

Gen. Sweetser informed the mayor that troops would be sent immediately if their presence here was required.

enough of an answer to the challenge thrown down to us that we subscribe grudgingly or barely two other bonds of liberty bonds we must over subscribe them. Our answer to the infinite aggressions of the earth must be that the American people have billions to sacrifice in the cause of liberty and self-government throughout the world."

No Time to Discuss Differences

Mr. McAdoo said that whatever differences there may have been about the war before it happened and there were honest differences of opinion about it, the present is no time to discuss them or to think of them.

"Your representatives in the congress of the United States, the men you sent there to speak for you, after having been informed by your president of issues involved in the supreme cause of the world's history," he said.

"Declar'd, by practically unanimous vote, that the rights and liberties of the American people had been put in jeopardy by the aggressions of a foreign power."

There was no difference by what name that foreign power may be called, the fact that it has committed repeated aggressions upon American rights, that it has subjected this nation to difficulties and wrongs which no nation could afford to endure.

That war has resulted, and that we are in it, means that every citizen, no matter what his birth or origin, owes fealty to the flag.

"I know how to sympathize with the German origin in this situation. I was born in the south in October, 1832, in the latter part of the Civil war. My father fought on the southern side; some of his people fought on the northern side. I know what he has been through, with what anguish, they had to face the issue of a divided country."

Believes God Called Us In

"There are times in the history of every nation when the hand of an unseen power directs things, when individuals are absolutely impotent to control the course of great events. This is one of those supreme crises. I believe that God had called this nation into this struggle to serve a mighty purpose to serve the world."

"What is our democracy and self-government, nations cannot be buried into war by the arbitrary will of any individual. We have lived here in the United States alongside Canada, which is practically a great republic, because they have self-government, for more than one hundred years, and we have had to live in our border with an armed soldier. Isn't that a striking example of what it means to have self-government among contiguous peoples?

"The overshadowing danger to civilization today is the German influence, which is a hundred times greater than our own, and which is threatening to engulf us."

"Cooperation and harmony were evident in every quarter, and while registration will entail considerable work, the fact that all came to the front and did his bit greatly relieved the task, and helped to expedite matters generally."

Policemen Guard Booths

The booths were guarded by policemen, who, like the precinct officers, gave their services without pay that the work might proceed without interruption or confusion. The entire work was directed by the board of registrars, the city clerk, and other officials, and each voter, from 17 to 21, was registered and given a ballot, each and every one doing his bit without hesitation, and without extra compensation.

A great spirit of patriotism and loyalty, but a spirit entirely in keeping with the occasion, as just what its young men are doing.

Cooperation and harmony were evident in every quarter, and while registration will entail considerable work, the fact that all came to the front and did his bit greatly relieved the task, and helped to expedite matters generally."

Despite the seriousness of the occasion, many humorous incidents were recorded during the day. In precinct one of ward one, a young man born in Austria, was accidentally shot in the boot, but he had the bullet removed and was taken to a hospital.

He was born in 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 8

AMERICAN RED CROSS NEEDS $100,000,000

The sum of $100,000,000 is needed for the use of the American Red Cross in the present war and it is the purpose to begin an active campaign in which highly organized local committees throughout the country will strive to collect the required amount. At the order of President Wilson, who is the real head of the American Red Cross, the week of June 15 to 25 has been set aside as Red Cross week.

In response to this order from the president, the finance committee of the Middlesex County chapter of the American Red Cross met yesterday afternoon. The meeting room of the chapter is located in Lowell although the surrounding towns are within the limits of the district. It was voted to conduct a campaign through team work, ten teams with ten members each. Men who agreed to serve on the teams will be asked to contribute a week of duty and be prepared to give a large amount of time to the work.

Robert F. Marden has been chosen campaign chairman and his board of executive campaigners at the present time is composed of John A. Dunnigan, W. H. Stevens, Fred C. Clegg, James C. Kelly and Albert D. Miller. A larger body of executive committee will be chosen in a few days and will be asked to give material assistance to the framework of what may prove to be Lowell's banner campaign.

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box of "Fruit-a-tives"

"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking "Fruit-a-tives". For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried "Fruit-a-tives" and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

Several new features marked the opening of the second week's stay of this show. A number of diving girls are giving daily exhibitions on the grounds, and these shapely water nymphs will undoubtedly attract a large audience to the performances. New booths have been erected, and this week's performances will surpass even those of the past week.

MASTER BAKERS DISCUSS LIBERTY LOAN BONDS

The master bakers of this city met last night at the board of trade rooms and discussed the Liberty Loan bond issue. The meeting was called by the sub-committee of the Liberty loan committee and was attended by 15 of the men. The Liberty Loan was explained by R. F. Marden of the general committee and the meeting asked many questions. Robert Friend, for Friend Bros., said that he had talked with his men about it and he was sure that fully $10,000 worth of the bonds would be subscribed at his shop. Others spoke in like vein and all agreed to put the matter carefully before their workers and to support the loan to the best of their ability.

CHILDREN'S NIGHT

The children's night held by Highland Union Rebekah Lodge attracted over a score of little ones to Highland hall in Branch street last night. An excellent entertainment program was carried out during the evening, games were played and refreshments served. The lodge met early in the evening and transacted the regular monthly business after which the doors were opened to the public. Games were then started and Miss Helen Baker read "The Hired Girl" and "The Surprising Elizah". A masked dance was also given by Miss Alberta Upton and Gravo Milberry. The program was in charge of the entertainment committee consisting of Carrie Harvey, Alberta Upton, Grace Milberry, Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Howard, Isabel Todd and Mrs. White.

Know in Time

Many a man who neglected to find out what kind of "gasoline" went into his tank at the filling station finds out to his sorrow afterwards.

There is so much difference between SOCONY and "just gasoline" that it pays to be particular.

Knowing in time saves power loss and motor trouble.

Say "So-CO-ny" and you are absolutely certain to get pure, powerful fuel—every drop the same anywhere you buy it.

Buy under the SOCONY Sign. It will insure you a more efficient motor.

ANSWERING THE CALL

The young men who today register for duty with Uncle Sam, constitute the flower of the nation. They are in the bloom of youth, the high noon of physical perfection. It is such men with everything that they cherish to live for, that Uncle Sam intends shall fight the battle of democracy and vindicate the cause of American rights.

They will now await the bugle call to action and go into training for the day.

They will take part, if at all, in one of the worst wars that ever cursed the earth, but yet a war that will end the world of Prussian Junkerism, and world autocracy. Democracy will rule thereafter and freedom will be granted to small nationalities to which it was before denied. If the ingenious Yankees should devise a mode of beating the submarines, the war would thereby be brought to a speedy termination. If the United States trains a great army, we may never have cause to use it.

The defection of Russia at the present time has enabled Germany to draw over 1,000,000 men from the eastern front to the west in the hope of thus checking the spring drive by Britain and France.

It is her aim to hold the French and Belgian territory now in her possession in order that at the close of the war, she may have it with which to trade for her colonies, but the Allies will drive her out in spite of all her efforts. There is little hope of Russia coming back so that the other allied powers with the United States will probably have to finish the war without aid from Russia.

But whether the United States shall or shall not need an army of one or two millions, the fact that we have it will be a guarantee of peace there, after and will probably hasten the end of the war. It is not expected that any large number of American troops will see service in France.

THE SPEED MANIA

Now that the warm weather is with us, the speed maniacs who drive autos may be expected to cause the usual number of accidents, especially on Sundays. They will drive with such recklessness, that they will make the highways actually dangerous for the owners of autos who respect the law and the rights of others and who have some regard for their own safety.

Last Sunday may be regarded as the opening of the pleasure season for autos and accordingly there were several persons killed and a number injured. Next Sunday the record of fatal accidents will be greater. Some pedestrians were struck on Sunday while in the path of automobiles. The reports indicate that the drivers were not exercising due care, as otherwise, such accidents could not have happened. To give the chauffeur his due, it may be said that he seldom kills any pedestrian who does not get in front of his machine. That is to say, he does not go out of his way to kill pedestrians. But the reckless driver or the one who drinks can count many victims from among his passengers or those of the machines with which he collides.

It is time some authority were found to put a stop to reckless driving on the public highways. Such driving is more frequent on Sundays as the record of accidents will show. It is reasonable to assume that without any interference from police authorities during the present summer, the number of accidents in this state will be greater than that of last year, because the number of automobiles is greater. That means that before the first of September the reckless drivers will have killed about from 40 to 60 persons and maimed a great many others. The police authorities of the state are responsible for these fatalities so long as they allow reckless driving on highways.

CHASING A CAREER

A Boston girl went to New York with the idea that she was destined for a "career." She had shown talent in her high school days. Now she is in jail for stealing from a home where she had sought work as a domestic helper after failing to get a start in the line she wished to pursue.

There are a lot of girls and boys, too, who are so eager for "careers" that they are not learning how to live. They mistake a dream for an ideal.

A dream is something we wish for; an ideal is something we work for.

A dream makes commonplace duties dreary and distasteful while an ideal makes them interesting and attractive because they are the solid foundation upon which one may stand in reaching up for the ideal. The dream leads to neglect; the ideal encourages performance.

Here is some sound commencement time advice to boys and girls who are determined to seek careers. Don't do it.

Rather, remember that today is the great adventure and the great opportunity. Don't get your heads so far in the clouds that your feet stumble. You can never find your career; it must find you. If you have made a safe, solid road as you go, your destiny will travel surely over it and catch up with you from behind.

That neighborhood girl who sought

a career and landed in a cell looked too far ahead. She tried to reach the sunny uplands of success without first learning how to climb.

SIX CENT FARE

President Sullivan of the Bay State Street Railway company has been successful in his effort to have the six cent fare controversy reopened. The Public Service Commission will have to go over the whole matter again with a view to saving the railroad service to the public and preventing the loss to the savings banks of the state which are said to have $260,000,000 invested in the company's securities. This latter consideration is the chief club which President Sullivan used to secure a reopening of the case. It is not likely that the Public Service Commission having yielded to the incessant appeal for a six cent fare can give another adverse decision. The company is likely to get the additional cent and with the journeys taking away a considerable portion of its business, it may soon be asking even a higher rate of fare as necessary to save the stockholders from financial ruin. There are many lines of business in the same predicament but they cannot fall back upon the state for rehabilitation.

SOCIALIST OPPOSITION

The socialists here, as in other countries, are the enemies of the government. That is to be expected, as their principles are opposed to the freest form of government on earth. The socialists will be used by Germans as instruments to do work which they dare not do themselves. The Germans are in the habit of doing this. Since the opening of the war they have used pliant members of other nationalities to carry out their aims, while they have remained in the background. They have almost gone the limit on this game. The socialists, like the others who for any reason oppose the government in promoting the war, should be promptly punished.

RESIDENT ALIENS

It is quite probable that after the conclusion of this war, there will be a revision of our naturalization laws so that every alien coming to our shores will have to become a citizen within a reasonable time or get out. The country at present is said to have over 300,000 alien residents who have made no move in the direction of becoming citizens. They enjoy all the blessings and privileges of freedom and meet none of its obligations. A personal tax of $25 to $50 a year might lead them into a realizing sense of their duty to this country.

THE RED CROSS

Chairman Henry P. Davison of the American Red Cross has the reputation of a hustler, a man of extraordinary force and courage and one whose effort in behalf of the Red Cross of the nation has inspired confidence and brought success. The Red Cross is now engaged in a money raising campaign and there is no organization more deserving. It is hoped the desired amount will be secured without delay. The money is needed before the fall.

STEAMSHIP MERGER

About a score of British steamship lines have concluded a merger with a capital of $2,000,000 and a fleet of 400 vessels. To facilitate better routing and the more convenient transfer of crews is the object of the merger. By this means also greater safety against submarine attacks will be secured. It is a narrowing up of trans-Atlantic freight business against the common peril.

THE FUEL SUPPLY

The head of the national coal board appeals for every pound of fuel possible, but his appeal should be directed chiefly to the mine operators and the railroads which manage by collusion to hold up the coal supply whenever and wherever they see fit.

Somebody has proposed a sanity test for recruits. The recruit has proved his sanity. The test should be tried on the other fellow.

The Prince of Wales is having a perfectly awful time finding a non-Teutonic wife. It is plain he never visited Lowell.

There is no sign of the freight embargo being lifted. Certainly a strike of railroad employees will not help in that direction.

Villa is apparently not yet dead since he is reported to have captured a town on the Rio Grande.

Those who are not called upon to register need not imagine that no service is demanded of them.

WHY WE ARE FIGHTING

the Turk and adopted the method of Mahomet, setting itself to make the world bow before policies backed by organized and scientific military system.

"Tomorrow is registration day," said the secretary. "It is the duty of all, their legal as well as their patriotic duty, to register if within the class called. There are some who have not clearly seen the reason for that call. To them I would speak a word.

War of Self Defense

"Why are we fighting Germany?

The brief answer is that ours is a war of self-defense. We did not wish to fight Germany. She made the attack upon us, not on our shores, but on our ships, our lives, our rights, our future. For two years and more we held to a neutrality that made us apologize for things which outraged man's common sense of fair play and humanity.

At our new offense—the invasion of Belgium, the killing of civilian Belgians, the attacks on Scarborough and other defenseless towns, the laying of mines in neutral waters, the forcing off of the seas—and on and on through the months we said: "This is war—uncivilized, uncivilized war, but war. All rules have been thrown away; all nobility; man has come down to the primitive brute. And while we cannot justify we will not intervene. It is not our war."

Could Not Keep Out

"Then why are we in? Because we could not keep out. The invasion of Belgium, which opened the war, led to the invasion of the United States by slow, steady, logical steps. Our sympathies evolved into a conviction of self-interest. Our love of fair play ripened into alarm at our own peril.

"We talked in the language and in the spirit of good faith and sincerely, as honest men should talk, until we discovered that our talk was construed as cowardice. And Mexico was called upon to cow us. We talked as men would talk who cared not for price, gain, the advancement of their own material interests, until we discovered that we were thought to be a nation of mere moneymakers, devoid of all character—until indeed we were told that we could not walk the highways of the world without permission of a Prussian soldier, that our ships might not sail without wearing

"SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezeone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dried at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezeone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

"Because of France—invaded, outraged, enslaved, impoverished Belgium. We cannot forget Liege, Louvain and Cardinal Mercier. Translated into terms of American history these names stand for Bunker Hill, Lexington and Patrick Henry;

"Because of France—invaded, desecrated, France, a million of whose heroic sons have died to save the land of Lafayette. Glorious golden France, the preserver of the arts, the land of noble spirit. The first land to follow our lead into republican liberty;

"Because of England—from whom came the laws, traditions, standards of life and inherent love of liberty which we call Anglo-Saxon civilization.

"We defeated her once upon the land and once upon the sea. But Australia, New Zealand, Africa, and Canada are free because of what we did. And they are with us in the fight for the freedom of the seas.

"Because of Russia—new Russia.

She must not be overwhelmed now.

Not now, surely, when she is just born into freedom. Her peasants must have their chance; they must go to school to Washington, to Jefferson and to Lincoln, until they know their way about in this new, strange world, of government by the popular will, and

"Because of other peoples, with their rising hope that the world may be freed from government by the soldier.

"We are fighting Germany because she sought to terrorize us and then to fool us. We could not believe that Germany would do what she said she would do upon the seas.

Hear Cries of Those Lost on Lusitania

"We still hear the piteous cries of children coming up out of the sea where the Lusitania went down. And Germany has never asked forgiveness of the world.

"We saw the Sussex sunk, crowded with the sons and daughters of neutral nations.

"We saw ship after ship sent to the bottom—ships of mercy bound out of America for the Belgian starving,

—ships carrying the Red Cross and laden with the wounded of all nations,

—ships carrying food and clothing to friendly, harmless, terrorized peoples, —ships flying the Stars and Stripes, sent to the bottom hundreds of miles from shore, manned by American seamen, murdered against all law, without warning.

"We believed Germany's promise that she would respect the neutral flag and the rights of neutrals, and we held our anger and outrage in check. But now we see that she was holding us off with fair promises until she could build her huge fleet of submarines.

For when spring came she blew her promise into the air just as at the beginning she had torn up that "scrap of paper."

Then we saw clearly that there was but one law for Germany, her will to rule.

"We are fighting Germany because she violated our confidence.

Paid German spies filled our cities.

Officials of her government, received as the guests of this nation, lived with us to bribe and terrorize, defying our law and the law of nations.

"We are fighting Germany because while we were yet her friend—the only great power she held, and only the Zemper, the Zimmermann, now calling to her aid Mexico, our southern neighbor, and hoping to lure Japan, our western neighbor, into war against this nation of peace.

"The nation that would do these things proclaims the gospel that government has no conscience. This doctrine can not live in a democratic must die. For the nations of the world must keep faith. There can be no living for us in a world where the state has no conscience; no reverence for the things of the spirit, no respect for international law, no mercy for those who fall before its force. What an unfeared world! Anarchy! The anarchy of the rival wolf packs!

Feudalism Making Last Stand

"We are fighting Germany because in this war feudalism is making its last stand against the on-coming democracy. We see it now. This is a war against an old spirit, an ancient outworn spirit. It is a war against feudalism—the right of the castle on the hill to rule the village below. It is a war for democracy—the right of all to be their own masters. Let Germany be feudal if she will. But she must not spread her system over the world that has outgrown it. Feudalism has been a thousand years plus two hundred—this is the religion of the mistaken Germany that has linked itself with the Turk—that has, too, adopted the method of Mahomet. The state has no conscience. The state can do no wrong. With the spirit of the fanatic she believes this gospel, and that it is her duty to spread it by force.

"With naked gun that makes living a hell, with submarines that sneak through the seas to slay unarmored non-combatants, with dirigibles that bombard men and women while they sleep, with a perfected system of terrorization that the modern world first heard of when German troops entered China. German feudalism is making war upon mankind.

Would Live in Haunting Terror

"Let this old spirit of evil have its way and no man will live in America without paying toll to it, in punishment

An Unfailing Way To Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)

Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of debratone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about two minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real debratone.

All rules have been thrown away; all nobility; man has come down to the primitive brute. And while we cannot justify we will not intervene. It is not our war."

War to Save America

"And so we came into this war for ourselves. It is a war to save America, to preserve self-respect, to justify our rights to live as we have lived, not as someone else wishes us to live. In the name of freedom we challenge with ships and men, money and an undaunted spirit, that word verboven which Germany has written upon the sea and upon the land. For America is not the name of so much territory. It is a living spirit, born in travail, grown in the rough school of bitter experiences, a living spirit which has purpose and pride and conscience—knows why it wishes to live and to whom it wishes to live. SILK REMNANT SALE BY A. G. POLLARD CO.

Large was the attendance this morning at the opening of the annual sale of printed silk remnants at the A. G. Pollard Co.'s store. This is an important bargain event offered by this company, for which about 2500 announcements are annually sent out, reaching from coast to coast. The term "book" quite aptly applies to the appearance of the eager buyers, as witnessed by a representative of The Sun.

The entire output of these silks from the Cheney Silk mills is received yearly, this year's assortment including the latest and most fashionable designs and color combinations in Samara, taffetas, crepe de chine and shower proof foulards. Upon their arrival the various patterns were assorted and carefully matched into patterns and arranged in these bundles of the several amounts for visits, dresses, coal and sun linings, etc.

Because of the extent of this sale, for the local people, those out of town but within traveling distance, and for those who must order by mail, the entire right aisle and corner of the Palmer Street store is being used for the display and selling of this lot of merchandise.

CENSORSHIP CLAUSE IS FINALLY KILLED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Striking out the newspaper censorship clause rejected by the house, the conferees on the espionage bill yesterday reached final complete agreement. Their report, with a slight change in another section of the measure, will be presented to the house Wednesday.

Adoption by both senate and house is expected with little debate.

Besides eliminating the censorship provision, the only change made by the conferees was to make the section punishing interference with foreign commerce operative in peace as well as war.

The conferees' action is accepted as ending the administration efforts for press censorship for the time being, but a new and separate censorship bill drafted after consultation with publishers may be presented later.

M'ADOO IN BOSTON TO BOOM LIBERTY LOAN

BOSTON, June 5.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo arrived here today to make an appeal to the people of New England to subscribe liberally to the Liberty Loan. The England Liberty Loan committee had arranged for the secretary to deliver an address in Faneuil hall at noon, to speak briefly at an overflow meeting in the market district just outside the hall, and to attend a luncheon at the City club.

In an interview Secretary McAdoo laid stress on the need of small subscriptions to the bond issue.

"Our people," he said, "must be made to realize that a loss of this size is too great for the banks to handle alone and that this great volume of money must be made up by the mass of the people. Moreover, wide popular subscription to this loan indicates greater national unity in this emergency and provides a more effective answer to the Kaiser's challenge to civilization. Wide distribution of this investment means also less displacement of business.

"The first necessity in carrying on war is money. This is called the Liberty Loan because the money derived from it will be dedicated to the cause of liberty throughout the world. We are now engaged in a death struggle between progressive civilization and the foes of progressive civilization. Free and progressive America belongs in a fight of this kind."

"We are sending our soldiers to the field and expecting them to make the supreme sacrifice that a patriot can make. We must not be less hesitant to require the sacrifices of property needed to make our soldiers effective upon the field. The soundness of our prosperity can only be conserves by the application of wholesome and honest methods and the use of the earliest settlers. He is not known.

The afternoon closed with tea served by Mrs. E. T. Rowell.
